¹The tax character of all rates is subject to change. The final character of all distributions paid in 2022 will be reported on Form 1099-DIV, which are anticipated to be mailed to applicable shareholders in early 2023. Net income and short-term capital gains distributions are generally treated as ordinary income for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Please consult with your tax advisor.

²Shareholders should note that a percentage of ordinary dividends (including short-term capital gains) may be eligible for reduced tax rates as “qualified dividend income” (QDI). Eligible amounts are reported to shareholders in Box 1b of Form 1099-DIV. Any tax or legal information provided is for general educational purposes only. Investors must consult their tax advisor or legal counsel for advice and information concerning their individual situation
