Tax-Exempt Income Dividends Subject to the Alternative Minimum Tax (as a percentage)

A portion of the federally tax-exempt income dividends paid during the calendar year represents income from private activity bonds issued after August 7, 1986 except for those issued in 2009 or 2010. This income represents a tax-preference item for alternative minimum tax (AMT) purposes and should be included in your AMT computation, if you are required to perform an AMT computation. The following schedule indicates the percentage of the tax-exempt income dividends subject to the AMT. Please consult your tax adviser to determine what is appropriate for your situation.
